

THE GLORIOUS COMING OF JESUS AND THE TWO HARVESTS

Soon there appears in the east a small black cloud, about half the size of a man's hand. It is the cloud which surrounds the Saviour and which seems in the distance to be shrouded in darkness. The people of God know this to be the sign of the Son of man. In solemn silence they gaze upon it as it draws nearer the earth, becoming lighter and more glorious, until it is a great white cloud, its base a glory like consuming fire, and above it the rainbow of the covenant. Jesus rides forth as a mighty conqueror. Not now a "Man of Sorrows," to drink the bitter cup of shame and woe, He comes, victor in heaven and earth, to judge the living and the dead. "Faithful and True," "in righteousness He doth judge and make war." And "the armies which were in heaven" (Revelation 19:11, 14) follow Him. With anthems of celestial melody the holy angels, a vast, unnumbered throng, attend Him on His way. The firmament seems filled with radiant forms--"ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands." No human pen can portray the scene; no mortal mind is adequate to conceive its splendor. "His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of His praise. And His brightness was as the light." Habakkuk 3:3,4. As the living cloud comes still nearer, every eye beholds the Prince of life. No crown of thorns now mars that sacred head; but a diadem of glory rests on His holy brow. His countenance outshines the dazzling brightness of the noonday sun. "And He hath on His vesture and on His thigh a name written, King of kings, and Lord of lords." Revelation 19:16.

THE DEAD WAIT IN THE GRAVE UNTIL THE SECOND COMING WHEN THE RIGHTEOUS ARE RAISED IN THE FIRST RESURRECTION

Ans: f. When did Job expect to see Jesus his redeemer after he had died and gone to the grave? Job 19:25-27.

²⁵For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the _____ day upon the earth: ²⁶And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I _____ God: ²⁷Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me. Job 19:25-27.

Ans: g. Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them. The apostle was bidden to write, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the _____, that they may _____ from their labors; and their works do follow them." Revelation 14:13. From this we can see that all are _____ to be _____ up; and if they are _____ raised to health they should not be judged as _____ of eternal life. If Jesus, the world's Redeemer, prayed, "O My Father, if it be possible, let this cup _____ from Me," and added, "nevertheless not as I will, but as _____ wilt" (Matthew 26:39), how very appropriate it is for finite mortals to make the same surrender to the wisdom and will of God.

When a man dies, his influence does _____ die with him; but it _____ on, reproducing itself. The influence of the man who was good and pure and holy lives on after his death, like the _____ of the descending _____, casting its glories athwart the heavens, lighting up the _____ peaks long after the sun has _____ behind the hill. So will the works of the pure and the holy and the good reflect their light when they no longer live to speak and act themselves. Their works, their words, their example will _____ live. "The _____ shall be in everlasting _____." See note below.

Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth. The word blessed used here in this text is the Greek word makarios (μακάριος) meaning: "happy." The Enhanced Strong's Lexicon. Those that died after the three angel's messages were first preached together soon after 1844 when the Sabbath and the sanctuary were more clearly understood are called blessed or happy.

There is a pledge from Him who is the resurrection and the life (Jn 11:25), that those who sleep in Jesus will Christ bring with Him from the grave (1 Thes 4:14). The trump will sound, the dead will awaken to life, to die no more (1 Cor 15:51-54). The eternal morning has come to them, for there will be no night in the city of God (Rev 21:25; 22:5).

Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them. The apostle was bidden to write, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them." Revelation 14:13. From this we can see that all are not to be raised up; and if they are not raised to health they should not be judged as unworthy of eternal life. If Jesus, the world's Redeemer, prayed, "O My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from Me," and added, "nevertheless not as I will, but as Thou wilt" (Matthew 26:39), how very appropriate it is for finite mortals to make the same surrender to the wisdom and will of God.

When a man dies, his influence does not die with him; but it lives on, reproducing itself. The influence of the man who was good and pure and holy lives on after his death, like the glow of the descending sun, casting its glories athwart the heavens, lighting up the mountain peaks long after the sun has sunk behind the hill. So will the works of the pure and the holy and the good reflect their light when they no longer live to speak and act themselves. Their works, their words, their example will forever live. "The righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance."

JESUS COMES BACK THE SECOND TIME ON A GREAT WHITE CLOUD

2. What did John see next in vision which all that have died shall be raised to see at the resurrection of the righteous? Rev 14:14.

Ans: a. ¹⁴And I looked, and behold a _____ cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the _____ of man, having on his head a golden _____, and in his hand a sharp _____. Rev 14:14.

Ans: b. Then commenced the jubilee (Lev 27:24), when the land should rest (Lev 25:11). The Second _____ of Jesus is here described when Jesus the son of God comes in glory. I saw the pious slave rise in _____ and victory, and shake off the chains that bound him, while his wicked master was in confusion, and knew not what to do; for the wicked could not understand the words of the voice of God (Dan. 12:10). Soon appeared the great _____ cloud (Rev. 14: 14). It looked more lovely than ever before. On it sat the Son of Man (Lk 21:27). At first we did not see Jesus on the cloud, but as it drew near the earth, we could behold his _____ person. This cloud when it first appeared was the _____ of the Son of Man in heaven (Mt. 24:30). The voice of the Son of God called forth the sleeping saints (Jn 5:25-28) clothed with a glorious _____ (1 Cor 15:51-54). The living saints were changed in a _____, and caught up with them in the cloudy _____ (1 Cor 15:51-54; 1Thess. 4:17; Ps 104:3,4; 68:17). It looked all over glorious as it rolled upwards. On either side of the chariot were _____, and beneath it wheels. And as the chariot rolled upwards, the wheels cried Holy, and the wings as they moved, cried Holy, and the retinue of Holy Angels around the cloud cried _____, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty (Ezek 1:19-21). And the saints in the cloud cried Glory, Hallelujah. And the cloudy chariot rolled upwards to the Holy City. Jesus threw open the _____ of the Golden City, and _____ us in (Isa. 26:2). Here we were made welcome, for we had kept the "_____ of God," and had a "_____ to the tree of life." (Rev. 22:14). See note below.

Then commenced the jubilee (Lev 27:24), when the land should rest (Lev 25:11). The Second Coming of Jesus is here described when Jesus the Son of God comes in glory. I saw the pious slave rise in triumph and victory, and shake off the chains that bound him, while his wicked master was in confusion, and knew not what to do; for the wicked could not understand the words of the voice of

Then she saw that _____ would not leave the Most _____ Place until every _____ was decided either for _____ or _____, and that the _____ of God could not come until Jesus had _____ his work in the Most _____ Place, laid off his priestly attire and clothed himself with the garments of _____. Then Jesus will step out from between the Father and man, and God will keep silence no longer; but pour out his _____ on those who have _____ his _____. She saw that the anger of the nations, the _____ of God, and the time to judge the dead, were _____ events, one following the other. I saw that Michael had not stood up, and that the time of trouble, such as never was, had _____ yet commenced (Dan 12:1). The nations are now getting angry, but when our High Priest has finished his work in the Sanctuary, he will stand up, put on the garments of vengeance, and then the seven last _____ will be poured out. I saw that the four angels would hold the four _____ until Jesus' work was done in the Sanctuary (Rev 7:1-4; 15:8), and then will come the seven last plagues. These plagues enraged the wicked against the righteous, and they thought that _____ had brought them down upon them, and if they could _____ the earth of _____, then the plagues would be stayed. A _____ went forth to _____ the saints, which caused them to cry day and night for _____. This was the time of _____ trouble (Jer 30:7). Then I was shown a _____ On their garments was written in large characters, "Thou art _____ in the balance, and found wanting." (Dan 5:27)I asked who this company were. The angel said, "These are they who have _____ kept the _____ and have _____ it up." I heard them cry with a loud voice, "We have believed in thy coming, and taught it with energy." And while they were speaking, their eyes would fall upon their garments and see the writing, and then they would wail aloud. I saw that they had drunk of the deep waters, and fouled the residue with their feet-- trodden the _____ under foot, and that is why they were weighed in the balance and found wanting. A Sketch of the Christian Experience and Views of Ellen G. White page 19. See note below.

The winepress of the wrath of God is a symbol of the seven last plagues ending in the final destruction of the wicked at the Second Coming of Christ (Rev15:1; 16:1,19; 19:15-21).

Ellen G White was taken off in vision to the Most Holy Place, where she saw Jesus still interceding for Israel. On the bottom of his garment was a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate. Then she saw that Jesus would not leave the Most Holy Place until every case was decided either for salvation or destruction, and that the wrath of God could not come until Jesus had finished his work in the Most Holy Place, laid off his priestly attire and clothed himself with the garments of vengeance. Then Jesus will step out from between the Father and man, and God will keep silence no longer; but pour out his wrath on those who have rejected his truth. She saw that the anger of the nations, the wrath of God, and the time to judge the dead, were separate events, one following the other. I saw that Michael had not stood up, and that the time of trouble, such as never was, had not yet commenced (Dan 12:1). The nations are now getting angry, but when our High Priest has finished his work in the Sanctuary, he will stand up, put on the garments of vengeance, and then the seven last plagues will be poured out. I saw that the four angels would hold the four winds until Jesus' work was done in the Sanctuary (Rev 7:1-4; 15:8), and then will come the seven last plagues. These plagues enraged the wicked against the righteous, and they thought that we had brought them down upon them, and if they could rid the earth of us, then the plagues would be stayed. A decree went forth to slay the saints, which caused them to cry day and night for deliverance. This was the time of Jacob's trouble (Jer 30:7). Then all the saints cried out with anguish of spirit, and were delivered by the voice of God. Then the 144,000 triumphed. Their faces were lighted up with the glory of God. Then I was shown a company who were howling in agony. On their garments was written in large characters, "Thou art weighed in the balance, and found wanting." (Dan 5:27). I asked who this company were. The angel said, "These are they who have once kept the Sabbath and have given it up." I heard them cry with a loud voice, "We have believed in thy coming, and taught it with energy." And while they were speaking, their eyes would fall upon their garments and see the writing, and then they would wail aloud. I saw that they had drunk of the deep waters, and fouled the residue with their feet-- trodden the Sabbath under foot, and that is why they were weighed in the balance and found wanting. Ans: j. By the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs. This is a distance (1,600 furlongs) of about _____ miles (322 Kilometers). The heavenly Jerusalem is 12,000 furlongs or _____ miles (2,414 Kilometers) around the wall which is square (Rev 21:16). The area inside the city is 140,625 square _____ (5827444 square Kilometers). If a space of 1,600 furlongs (Rev 14:20) or 200 miles (322 Kilometers) was measured right around the city in every direction that would be an area of _____ square miles (627642.6 square Kilometers). This is the area of blood around the city. The number of the wicked people that would crowd into this area as in the final destruction of Satan and his followers (Rev 20:7-10) would be up to 5,000,000,000 or 5 _____ people which is about the _____ of the _____ today. This area outside the city is nearly three times the area inside the city. God is giving a very detailed and graphic symbolism in this description of the Second Coming. This is a very severe _____ of _____ while time still lasts to accept the loving call of Jesus to repentance and conversion. The Bible calls Jerusalem God's people. God's people will be _____ by the wicked at the Second _____ of Jesus and the wicked will be destroyed by fire (2 Thes 1:8). The _____ shepherds had been the signal objects of Jehovah's _____. Their eyes had consumed away in their holes, and their tongues in their mouths, while they stood upon their feet. After the saints had been _____ by the voice of God, the wicked multitude turned their rage upon one another. The earth seemed to be _____ with _____, and _____ bodies were from one _____ of it to the other. Ellen G. White, Spiritual Gifts, page 289. See note below.

And the winepress was trodden without the city. The winepress is a symbol of God's wrath and vengeance poured out on the on the wicked by their plagues and destruction (Isa 63:1-6; Lam 1:15; Rev 19:14-21; Joel 3:12,13). Jesus suffered outside the city of Jerusalem (Heb 13:11-14). Jerusalem is a symbol of God's people (Zech 8:8). So the winepress being trodden without the city shows that God's people are not touched by the wrath of God. Later on at the end of the thousand years the wicked will gather round the city and will be finally destroyed by fire (Rev 21:1,10; 20:7-9). At the Second Coming the wicked will be around God's people (Jerusalem) in every country of the world, in readiness to destroy them. Then Jesus comes and rescues His people from the wicked to take them home with Him for ever.

And blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles. This phrase is a symbol of the destruction of the wicked at the Second Coming of Jesus. Jezebel the great enemy of God's people was destroyed in this way (Rev 2:20-23). Jezebel was symbolic of the Papal period in the Seven Churches who God will destroy at the Second Coming in a similar symbolism to the destruction of Jezebel. With the Blood of Jezebel the blood was only sprinkled but at the time of the Second Coming the bloodshed will be in a far greater measure in symbol up to the horses bridle. The horse bridle is about the height of the average man (the biggest family of horses "Shire" would have its bridle at about 2 meters [6feet]).

³⁰And when Jehu came to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window. ³¹And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Had Zimri peace, who slew his master? ³²And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? And there looked out to him two or three eunuchs. ³³And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trode her under foot. 2 Kings 9:30 - 33.

By the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs. This is a distance (1,600 furlongs) of about 200 miles (322 Kilometers). The heavenly Jerusalem is 12,000 furlongs or 1,500 miles (2,414 Kilometers) around the wall which is square (Rev 21:16). The area inside the city is 140,625 square miles (5827444 square Kilometers). If a space of 1,600 furlongs (Rev 14:20) or 200 miles (322 Kilometers) was measured right around the city in every direction that would be an area of 390,000 square miles (627642.6 square Kilometers). This is the area of blood around the city. The number of the wicked people that would crowd into this area as in the final destruction of Satan and his followers (Rev 20:7-10) would be up to 5,000,000,000 or 5 billion people which is about the population of the world today. This area outside the city is nearly three times the area inside the city. God is giving a very detailed and graphic symbolism in this description of the Second Coming. This is a very severe warning of mercy while time still lasts to accept the loving call of Jesus to repentance and conversion. The Bible calls Jerusalem God's people. God's people will be surrounded by the wicked at the Second Coming of Jesus and the wicked will be destroyed by fire (2 Thes 1:8). The Bible describes thousands and ten thousands falling around us at the time of the plagues up to the Second Coming. Revelation 14:20 gives a symbolic picture of the terror that will come to the wicked if they do not repent and accept Jesus into their lives every day.

Section Eight – War of Worship in the Time of Judgment
Lesson 29 - Jesus' final warning in love to the whole world part 3

My attention was again directed to the earth. The wicked had been destroyed, and their dead bodies were lying upon its surface. The wrath of God in the seven last plagues had been visited upon the inhabitants of the earth, causing them to gnaw their tongues from pain and to curse God. The false shepherds had been the signal objects of Jehovah's wrath. Their eyes had consumed away in their holes, and their tongues in their mouths, while they stood upon their feet. After the saints had been delivered by the voice of God, the wicked multitude turned their rage upon one another. The earth seemed to be deluged with blood, and dead bodies were from one end of it to the other. Ellen G. White, Spiritual Gifts, page 289.

8. Would you like to accept Jesus into your life daily, and show your love to Him by keeping the Sabbath and all of His Commandments, so that He can save you from the terrible fate of the wicked and take you into His wonderful city for ever?
